

Congratulations on the new addition to your family! Having a relationship with a pet is a big responsibility, but also one that brings such incredible experiences, life lessons, and unconditional love. We, at the Animal Medical Center, appreciate that you have entrusted us with the care of your pet. In this folder we have provided you with some basic, yet important, information to help build the bond between you and your pet, guide you in choosing his/her path of medical care, and how to avoid and handle behavioral concerns that may come your way. Should you have any questions regarding your pet and his/her care, please do not hesitate to contact us. Our friendly and knowledgeable staff is available to help you with your needs. Additional information can be found at our website www.amc-la.com. We look forward to growing with you.

Thank you,
Dr's and staff of the Animal Medical Center